

Appendix 3

Margaret Elizabeth Deze

Curriculum Vitae

Margaret is a former Partner of Ernst & Young (EY). She has spent a total of 35 years with the Big 4. Within that period, Margaret was a Partner for 20 years in the areas of Transactions Advisory and Corporate Finance, initially with PwC and the final 10 years with EY.

As a Chartered Accountant born in Canada to Hungarian parents, Margaret started as an auditor in Canada. On coming to Hungary in 1989, her career quickly evolved from audit into the area of privatization and Corporate Finance. Throughout these 30 years she has advised on hundreds of transactions and assisted various types of clients in a variety of industries on strategic and investment decision making.

In addition to leading the Corporate Finance and Transactions Advisory Teams in Hungary, she has held five different regional leadership roles in the CEE region, including one year of flying back and forth every week to Kiev when starting a Corporate Finance department in Ukraine.

Margaret is presently serving as a member of the Supervisory Board of United Way Hungary (a not-for-profit foundation) as well as of Impact Ventures, a social impact oriented venture capital fund. She has recently joined as a member of the Board of Directors of Kometa, and very much looks forward to serving on Board of Directors of Masterplast.

On the personal level, Margaret is happily married and has a 14 year old daughter. She enjoys music and concerts, reading, and various sports however her biggest passion is to dance.